Reader	Julian Dickson
Preacher	The Dean
Eucharistic Assistant	Lois Baker

Christ is risen. Alleluia!

The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!

The Collect and Readings for The Fifth Sunday after Easter
according to the BCP, and with an Old Testament reading

The Collect	BCP page 196
The Old Testament Lesson	Joel 2:21-26

“Fear not, O land;
be glad and rejoice,
for the Lord has done great things!
Fear not, you beasts of the field,
for the pastures of the wilderness are green;

the tree bears its fruit;
the fig tree and vine give their full yield.
“Be glad, O children of Zion,
and rejoice in the Lord your God,
for he has given the early rain for your vindication;
he has poured down for you abundant rain,
the early and the latter rain, as before.
“The threshing floors shall be full of grain;
the vats shall overflow with wine and oil.
I will restore to you the years
that the swarming locust has eaten,
the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter,
my great army, which I sent among you.
“You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied,
and praise the name of the Lord your God,
who has dealt wondrously with you.
And my people shall never again be put to shame.”

All baptized Christians, regardless of current or past Church affiliation, are welcome to receive communion.

How to receive communion - ongoing directions
[from the Dean (as of 2010 June)]
For safe health practices, a communicant may not intinct (dip) his or her own bread and may not receive the bread on the tongue.
Extend your hands, receive the bread, consume it and either return to your seat or go to a chalice bearer and receive the wine.
Or, to receive the wine but without drinking from the chalice, do not extend your hands when approaching the administrator of the bread; he or she will first intinct (dip) the bread in the wine and then place it in your open hands. (It will not be placed on your tongue.)
